SAT Words - Official List

I can't get over what a great site this. I just put in a list of 100 words, they're part one of the "official word list" for sat study. Here's what I found:

- 82 of the words in SpellingCity and ready to go
- 3 were "coming soon"
- 15 words were apparently new to the SpellingCity.com database and not recognized. I suspect that they'll appear in the next month, first as "coming soon", then they'll come online.

Here's something else. When I searched for my list, I put "sat" into the FindaList function. I got about 35 "hits", the bulk of which were word lists for SAT practice. Very cool

Just for giggles, let's see how long it take the good people at SpellingCity to process these new words. Here's the ones that they didn't recognize: articulation

Compendious
Connoisseurs
Corpulence
Debacles
Depreciatory
Floridity
Haranguing
Heterogeneity
Insular
Litigious
Palliative
Profundity
Sycophants
Toadies
viscous

The list that I put up is called: SAT Words - List 1 - Official
