
Do you like the voice of \"Get Ready for the Test?

I'm curious. Some of my students love the voice that plays before each test:

Get Ready for the Test...
No peeking at your list
Get Ready
Begin.

Some don't like it. The kids that I'm working with are third grade.

Do you like it or not?

Sounds okay to me. My students are 2nd graders. They're used to hearing me say the same thing. :)

Actually, I want to change my vote. My students seem to love her voice. They walk around repeating it all the time. Some of them sound exactly like websites. It's amazing!!!
