

Sort 30

1. moist [Adjective]
Sentence: This cake is moist, while that cake is dry.
Definition: slightly damp

2. joint [Noun]
Sentence: The knee is a joint where leg bones connect.
Definition: place where two parts connect, such as bones

3. broil [Verb]
Sentence: Broil the meat on the top rack of a hot oven.
Definition: to cook using direct heat

4. soil [Noun]
Sentence: Seeds grow in rich soil.
Definition: dirt or earth

5. toy [Noun]
Sentence: My favorite toy to play with is a puppet.
Definition: a plaything for a child

6. soy [Noun]
Sentence: Beans from the soy plant are high in protein.
Definition: plant known for its highly nutritious beans

7. coil [Verb]
Sentence: A serpent will coil in spirals to keep warm.
Definition: to loop or wind into spirals

8. boil [Verb]
Sentence: I boil water by heating it until it bubbles.
Definition: to turn liquid water into a gas with heat

9. joy [Noun]

Sentence: I saw joy on her face when she won a prize.

Definition: a feeling of happiness or pleasure

10. join [Verb]

Sentence: Tape holds the wires where they join.

Definition: to put or come together or to connect

11. spoil [Verb]

Sentence: Milk will spoil fast out of the refrigerator.

Definition: to become unfit for use or consumption

12. oil [Noun]

Sentence: I used oil to grease the squeaky car gears.

Definition: grease used to lubricate machine parts

13. coin [Noun]

Sentence: I put a coin in my piggy bank to save it.

Definition: money in the form of a round metal disk