

shark

© SpellingCity.com

shark
large fish with sharp teeth, pointy top fin

A great white shark has many rows of sharp teeth.

© SpellingCity.com

check

© SpellingCity.com

check
to find out what or how one is doing

Check on the dog and see what he is doing.

© SpellingCity.com

queen

© SpellingCity.com

queen
female monarch or wife of the king

The prince is the queen and king's only son.

© SpellingCity.com

circus

© SpellingCity.com

circus
a show featuring clowns, animals and acrobats

Elephants and clowns perform at the circus.

© SpellingCity.com

crack

© SpellingCity.com

crack
a small opening

Weeds grow in the crack in the sidewalk.

© SpellingCity.com

squeeze

© SpellingCity.com

squeeze
to compress inward

Squeeze the toothpaste slowly out of the tube.

© SpellingCity.com

quart

© SpellingCity.com

quart
unit of measurement equal to two pints

There are two pints in a quart of milk.

© SpellingCity.com

squeak

© SpellingCity.com

squeak
a quick high pitched noise

The mouse makes a high pitched squeak.

© SpellingCity.com

quick

© SpellingCity.com

quick
taking only a short time to do something

The quick boy ran fast and won the race.

© SpellingCity.com

coldest

© SpellingCity.com

coldest
lowest in temperature or most frigid

It was the coldest day of the snowy winter.

© SpellingCity.com